Evening Post

1909-1931

The Evening Post {Publication Office, 20 VESEY STREET, P. O. Box 794. Telephone, Cortlandt 84, {New York.

July 29, 1909.

Mr. Baumann L. Belden,

Secretary American Numismatic Society,

New York City.

Dear Sir:

It is our intention to publish a supplement dealing with the Hudson-Fulton celebration, and we should be greatly obliged if you would send us an outline or programme of any exhibition you may intend to hold in connection with the event. We wish, if possible, to publish a full list of all Hudson-Fulton exhibitions.

Very truly yours,

THE EVENING POST

By WB Hayward.

August 3, 1909.

The Evening Post,
20 Vesey Street,
New York.

Dear Sirs:-

Your favor of the 30th ult. was duly received.

During the Hudson-Fulton celebration the building of Society will be open to visitors, as usual, with coins and medals on exhibition, but no special exhibition in connection with this event will be held.

Very truly yours

Director.

March 22, 1910

The City Editor
The Evening Post
20 Vesey Street
New York City

Dear Sir :

You would greatly oblige The American Numismatic Society, and, perhaps, also in some degree promote the interest of the public, if you would kindly add to your very useful Art Calendar the statement on the enclosed slip.

Yours very truly,

Director

January 10th, 1913.

City Editor Evening Post,
20 Vesey Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I would be greatly obliged if the enclosed notice could be placed in your Art Calendar.

Very truly yours,

Director.

The American Numismatic Society, Broadway at 156th Street. Exhibition of Medals, Statuary, Prints, Books &c. relating to Joan of Arc. Week days 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., Sundays 1 to 5 P. M. until February 7th. Free.

May 28, 1931.

City Editor
New York Evening Sun
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

On previous occasions you have asked us to send you word of matters at our Museum. We are hoping that you may have space available for a part or the whole of the accompanying report of a lecture given this evening May 28th, as the subject matter is one of considerable popular interest at the present time. Thanking you for this and your previous courtesies, I am

Very truly yours,

SN:JG

Secretary

Herald Tribune

May 29, 1931.

City Editor
New York Evening Post
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

On previous occasions you have asked us to send you word of matters at our Museum. We are hoping that you may have space available for a part or the whole of the accompanying report of a lecture given this evening May 28th, as the subject matter is one of considerable popular interest at the present time. Thanking you for this and your previous courtesies, I am

Very truly yours,

SN:JG

Secretary